Grant Ramsay Director of Publicity

Grant Ramsay is a publicist, producer, and walking reservoir of theatrical trivia.

After graduating from Ryerson University's prestigious journalism program, Grant began his celebrated career as a theatrical publicist with the Leah Posluns Theatre and hasn't looked back! Over the past twenty years, Grant has worked in every venue in Toronto, and with such organizations as Ontario Place (when the Forum was still there!), Buddies in Bad Times Theatre (back in the day!), Harbourfront Centre (Milk International Children's Festival, du Maurier World Stage), Livent Inc. (during the glory days of The Phantom of the Opera, Sunset Boulevard with Diahann Carroll, the international tours of Ragtime and Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat with Donny Osmond), CanStage (the world premiere of Outrageous, Sweeney Todd, Steve Martin's Picasso at the Lapin Agile) and the City of Toronto (the inaugural Nuit Blanche, WinterCity, Celebrate Toronto Street Festival). A master of protocol and owner of his own tuxedo, Grant has worked with the Prime Minister's office, the Governor general's office and the White House.

Grant is also producer of the wildly popular Sharron's Party, a monthly cabaret featuring Sharron Matthews at the Gladstone Hotel.
